

IN ONE ACCORD

A BIBLE STUDY SERIES ON UNITY

Session 2 | The Upper Room Unity Acts 1:12–14 (Waiting Together in Unity)

Theme: God's promises are fulfilled when His people choose to wait together in prayer and harmony.

I. THE CALL TO WAIT – Acts 1:4, 12

- Jesus' Instruction: "Wait for the promise of the Father."
- Obedience Before Action: They didn't rush ahead or scatter.
- Key Point: Sometimes the most spiritual thing we can do is wait in obedience, not work in anxiety.

II. THE PLACE OF WAITING – Acts 1:13

- The Upper Room: A familiar, set-apart gathering space.
- Safe & Focused Environment: Removed from distractions and open to God's presence.
- Key Point: Waiting in unity often requires a designated place and time where believers can focus together on God's promise.

III. THE PEOPLE OF WAITING – Acts 1:13–14

- Diverse Backgrounds, Shared Faith: Fishermen, a tax collector, a zealot, women, family members of Jesus.
- No Divisions Mentioned: They put aside personal agendas to pursue God's agenda.
- Key Point: Unity in waiting means valuing the promise more than our preferences.

IV. THE PRACTICE OF WAITING – Acts 1:14

- Constant Prayer: They prayed continually, not just casually.
- One Accord: They shared the same spiritual focus and emotional commitment.
- Key Point: Unity is not just being together physically; it's being aligned spiritually and purposefully.

V. THE POWER AFTER WAITING – Acts 2:1–4

- Their united waiting positioned them for Pentecost.
- The Holy Spirit came in a place, among a people, in one accord.
- Key Point: God often moves most powerfully after His people have first moved closer to one another.

Final Takeaway:

We don't just wait for God's promise — we wait with God's people.
